Dance, Montpelier armory, Saturday night. Carroll's orchestra. Special car to Barre.—adv.

Miss Ida Cutts of New York City is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Nickson of Washington street.
You will enjoy the program by the glee club and orchestra at Spaulding assembly hall to-night. Dancing after.—adv.

Misses Marion and Florence Nichols of 11 Elmore street have gone to Detroit, Mich., where they will seek employment.
Charles Sibley, who is employed in the shipyards at Chester, Pa., arrived in the city yesterday to make a visit with his family.
Raymond Blanchard of Boyce street has secured employment in the woolen mills at Malden, Mass., so left here to-day to begin the new work.
John Booth of Cherry street has gone to Detroit, Mich., for an indefinite stay but with intentions of remaining there after locating satisfactory work.

Owing to the unavoidable absence from the city of Douglas Inglis, Fred Inglis will sing "The Marseillaise" at night 2, at the Universalist concert to-night.
The Sweet family will hold a reception in the assembly rooms of the church after the concert and will be most glad to serve you with ice cream and cake.—adv.

Ira Houston and Douglas Inglis leave to-day for Detroit, Mich., by railway but will return by automobile, each driving a Dodge car from the factory to the Perry garage in this city.

The name of Miss Alice Persons, who performed a clog dance at the Goddard cabaret, was accidentally omitted from the program as announced in this paper yesterday. Miss Persons responded to an encore.

Regular meeting of Granite City lodge, I. O. O. F., M. U., will be held in Knights of Pythias hall Friday, April 23, at 7 p. m. Practice meeting of new guards at 8:30. Guards wear white initiation.

Nelson Browne, who came here to attend the funeral of Mrs. James F. Higgins Tuesday morning, returned to Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., last night after a few days' visit at his home on Cliff street.

Robert E. Kerwin, owner of the Kerwin system stores of Boston and vicinity, who spoke at the merchants and employees' banquet in Hotel Barre on Wednesday evening, returned to his home in Framingham, Mass., last night.

Alexander Ironside, organizer for the International Quarry Workers' union, has just returned from a trip to southern Virginia, organizing for the union. His journey included a visit to Washington, D. C., but for other business ends than organizing.

The campaign committee of the Baptist church will meet to-night at 7 o'clock at the church. This is the last meeting before the big drive and it is necessary that every member be present to receive final instructions and secure subscription blanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckley and two daughters, Flora and Marjorie, of 6 Park street started yesterday afternoon on a journey to Detroit, Mich., planning to pass a week or two with relatives and then return by driving two new Dodge cars, one a touring car and the other a roadster, to this city.

A conference of Barre members of the International Monumental Granite Producers' association committee held in the office of S. H. Jackson, president of the association, yesterday afternoon, was for the purpose of fixing the date for a special meeting of its members in New York City on May 3, according to information given out by the president this morning.

The first game of the season for Spaulding high school's baseball team is to be played here Saturday afternoon against Waterbury high. Two weeks of daily practice under Coach William Johnston and William Stuart have shaped an organization that bids fair to be of good calibre. The candidates are a group of sluggers, or at least have been so in the practice games. Candidates likely to be picked for Saturday's game are Brown as catcher, Bizcoero pitcher, Mann first base, Olliver second, Capt. Calderara shortstop, Murphy third base, Douglas left field, Greig center, and Nicora right. O'Leary as a first baseman or pitcher may be used during the game and McMahon as catcher.

The Grenfell mission has founded and supports hospitals, schools and an orphanage in Labrador and northern Newfoundland. Sunday services are held at many a lonely settlement. Industrial and charitable work in food and clothing is carried on. Dr. Grenfell uses a small boat in the open season and a dog team in winter, visiting the sick in response to calls. This work is non-sectarian. Tickets have been placed in all the churches for his lecture in the Congregational church next Wednesday night. Dr. Grenfell, a Quaker, deprives himself of all comforts for the sake of these lonely people. Every loyal church member should be only too glad of the opportunity to give 35 cents to help this splendid work.—adv.

Warning From Fire Chief.

After you have cleaned up your property, keep it clean. Do not dump your ashes near a wood partition or fence; use a can. If you haven't a can, use your head. The same with waste paper. If you live in a block, do not throw any paper out of the window to have someone else get blamed. Watch your step. Someone will pay a fine if caught throwing any waste from veranda or window. This thing has got to be stopped. Get permission to burn rubbish or grass.
John Heney, fire chief.

Driver Charles Mears of the Barre fire department returned yesterday from Charlestown, N. H., having driven the old horses Pete and Joker to their new home with Rev. J. B. Reardon, formerly of this city.

Auctioneer D. A. Perry returned to-day from Brattleboro and South Royalton, where during the past few days he has been conducting auction sales. For two days he was employed auctioneering registered and graded cattle for the Livestock Sales Co. The highest price paid for a single head of cattle was $625 and this for King Pontiac Wellington field, purchased by Mr. Metcalf of Holyoke, Mass. Yesterday Mr. Perry conducted the auction sale for I. W. Dodge at his farm in South Royalton.

The largest single contract for music ever received by Arthur Carroll, manager and director of Carroll's orchestra of this city, was received from the Chrome Tannery Co. for the dance to be given in Bethel this evening. Seven men left here to-day and five others, Mr. Lessor of Burlington, a clarinetist, and four men from Boston, banjo, saxophone, string bass and flute players join the orchestra in Bethel this evening. A number of young people from Barre left here today to attend the dance.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Death of Former Resident, Mrs. Ida Ainsworth Nogle in Idaho.

Mrs. Charles M. Seaver has received news of the recent death of Mrs. Ida Ainsworth Nogle, at her home in Post Falls, Idaho. Mrs. Nogle was for several years an inmate of the house of Dwight Abbott of this town, and taught in different schools in town, including the village school, the schoolhouse at that time being the building now occupied as a dwelling by Carroll Dutton, and where your correspondent was one of her pupils. She was born in Roxbury, June 11, 1852, and was the daughter of Captain Luther Ainsworth, a veteran of the Civil war, and her mother's name was Betsey P. Sibley. The father, Luther Ainsworth, was a cousin of Mrs. Laura Ainsworth of this village, and the G. A. R. post in Waitsfield was named the Ainsworth post in his honor. The deceased went West many years ago to visit a brother who lived in Wisconsin, and to continue teaching. She was married on May 4, 1881, to Irwin Rowe, and several children were born to them. After her death she married Mr. Nogle, and her home has been in Post Falls, Idaho, for some years. A brother, Frank Ainsworth, lives in South Royalton.

Rev. and Mrs. Weston A. Gate of Henderson, N. Y., at the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jeffords.
Adna Downs was taken to the hospital in Barre yesterday to determine the nature and extent of the injuries he sustained by the falling of a pole on him at his home lately.

On account of the absence of the pastor at conference, there will be no services in the Methodist church next Sunday.
Congregational church—Pastor, Rev. C. E. Walsh. Services Sunday at 10:45. Topic, "By-Products of the Christian Church." Beginning Sunday an appeal will be made to our friends and supporters to help to help this church raise its quota of the interchurch world movement fund. In this sermon the pastor will tell why this money is needed. Sunday school at 12 noon. Union service at 7:30. Topic, "Mending the Nets." Christian Endeavor on Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock.

NORWICH THE WINNER.

Defeated St. Lawrence University on Diamond, 6 to 2.
Northfield, April 23.—In a well played baseball game here yesterday the Norwich team defeated the nine of the St. Lawrence university by the score of 6 to 2. The visitors could do nothing with the offerings of Vitty, the Norwich star pitcher. "Babe" Hyland was on the receiving end for the odds, and played his usual fine game. The feature of the game was the long three-base smash of Day Waite, which came at an opportune time. Both Hyland and Waite are local boys and played on the Rutland high school team for two or three seasons.

The score by innings is as follows:
Norwich 0 1 1 1 0 0 3 0 0
St. Lawrence 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Batteries—Norwich, Vitty, Hyland; St. Lawrence, Goldsmith, Wright.

NATIONAL POLICIES.

Were Discussed at Conference of Mutual Savings Institutions.
Boston, April 23.—National policies with regard to thrift, housing, organization, municipal bonds, railroads and branch banks were discussed at the first national conference of mutual savings institutions held here to-day. More than half of the 62 mutual savings banks of the country were represented.

George E. Brock of Boston is chairman of the convention. The program included speeches by Governor Coolidge, Representative J. E.ech of Wisconsin, Professor Irving Fisher of Yale university, David S. Warfield of Baltimore, president of the National Association of Owners of Railroad of Securities, and Samuel H. Beach of Rome, N. Y., president of the Savings Bank association of New York state.
